TIME: 8 PM

WHERE: UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

As you know we are planning a Russian New Years Celebration together with the Netherlands-Russia Centre. Due to the circumstances, we however have to postpone this event for a few more days. We have decided for the Celebration to take place on the 25th of February. The location and time remain the same: 20.00 in the University Library. Drinks and Russian catering will be provided, so it is promising to be a lovely evening!

If you want to join, please let us know and RSVP before the 18th of February by sending a message to j.van.calsbeek@student.rug.nl. This way we can ensure enough food and drinks for everybody to have a good time.

See you soon!
